

A Public Hearing On Daylight Saving Plan

Common Council Adopts Resolution Giving Residents a Chance to be Heard in Regard to Matter—Sunday Hours for Shoe Polishers—Damage Claims and Other Matters.

The question of whether Kingston will have daylight saving or not this summer will be decided by the common council at the close of a public hearing to be held in the council chambers in the city hall Tuesday evening, March 21. This was decided by the aldermen at the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at which time Alderman Cashman, of the Third ward, introduced a resolution rescinding the daylight saving ordinance adopted last season by the common council. The resolution was amended by Alderman Martin by having it laid over until the close of the public hearing.

All of the aldermen were present when President Dittus called the council to order that evening. A communication from the Albany Avenue Baptist Church claiming that the church parsonage had been over-assessed $45.40 in 1920, was referred to City Assessor Johnson.

$5,500 in Damage Claims. Mary M. Hauck of No. 115 Wurts street filed a claim with the council asking damages in the sum of $5,500 from the city for injuries received in a fall on the walk in front of the city hall on January 24. It was referred to the auditing committee and Corporation Counsel W. N. Gill.

Exempt From Taxation. Alderman Martin introduced a resolution that all residence property, to be erected this summer be exempted from taxation for the next five years to stimulate building. The resolution was opposed by Alderman Macholdt, who did not believe it would work out. The resolution was not seconded, and so was lost.

City Buys Land. Alderman Macholdt offered a resolution that Stephen street be top-dressed and rolled which was referred to the public works board.

Change Williams Street? Alderman Beichert offered a resolution that the name of Williams street be changed to Foxhall avenue. Referred to the board of public works.

Lights, Streets, Etc. The aldermen introduced enough resolutions to keep the street department busy for some time. The following resolutions were introduced and referred to the board of public works:

Alderman Cashman.—That sewer be extended on East Chester street from Fred Lemister's lot to Lincoln street. Attached was a petition signed by twelve property owners.

Alderman Martin.—That a catch basin be constructed on North Front street at Joy's Lane to carry off the water from the amusement park and also that catch basins be placed on Lafayette avenue.

Alderman Kullman.—That a light be placed at corner of West Chester street and Montrose avenue.

Alderman Ryan.—That Hamilton street be repaved and that Wilbur avenue be improved.

Alderman Williams.—That a light be placed at Elm street and Second avenue in place of present small light; that DuBois street be repaved and placed in passable condition; that a light be placed at Third and Delaware avenues; that catch basins be repaved and cleaned at corner of Maple street and North street.

Alderman Joy.—That St. Mary's street be repaved; Murray street needs repaving and lighting; sewer on East Pleasant street needs to be repaired and cleaned; the high road guard rail should be repaired as it was in dangerous condition.

Now Means Done It. Alderman Mann introduced a blanket resolution covering the needs of the city, the seventh, requesting that the mayor and board of public works make an inspection of the streets of the Seventh ward to see what work was needed.

In Ponckhockie. Alderman Keating introduced resolutions calling for the repairing of Delaware avenue, from North street to Yeomans street; the placing of Willow and Cordis streets in passable condition; and the topdressing of East Union street from Yeomans street; that an electric light be placed on Crane street; and another at the corner of East Strand and Sycamore street.

Shoe Shining Parlors. Alderman Martin introduced a petition signed by several shoe shining shop proprietors asking that the council adopt a resolution requiring all shoe shining to cease on Sunday. At the present time there is an ordinance requiring shoe shining parlors to close at noon on Sunday. The petition was also referred to the public hearing.

Exempt From Taxation. Alderman Martin introduced a resolution that all residence property, to be erected this summer be exempted from taxation for the next five years to stimulate building. The resolution was opposed by Alderman Macholdt, who did not believe it would work out. The resolution was not seconded, and so was lost.

SKILLYPOT HELD UP BY CURRENT

Terrific Rain Storm of Tuesday Night That Flooded Cellars and Blocked City Sewers Stopped Famous Old Craft From Making Trips Across Rondout Creek.

Early Tuesday evening a terrific rain storm swept over Kingston flooding the cellars of a number of houses, and blocking the city storm water sewers which were unable to carry off the water as fast as it fell. Sidewalks and streets were flooded and in some places pedestrians needed boots in order to navigate walk and street.

In some places about town it was reported that the water entered cellars to such a depth that furnace fires were extinguished, and many householders were kept busy bailing out the water from the cellar floor. The ground was frozen fast and the rain as it fell was not absorbed, and as a result the water backed into the cellars.

This morning there was such a strong current running in the Rondout creek that the ferry Skillypot was taken off the route as the owners did not believe it was safe to continue to operate the ferry until the current had subsided.

Passengers in the Highland bus were forced to walk across the Rondout Creek Bridge when it was found that the ferry had stopped running. It was stated at the ferry office that the ferry would resume trips as soon as it was safe to do so.

The rain storm, however, has not loosened the ice in the Hudson river or the Rondout creek to any extent, and rivermen stated this morning that the ice was still holding fast. No damage was done up the Rondout creek as far as could be learned.

The Kingston-Rhinecliff ferry Transport made regular trips all day today.

There was a large attendance at the Efficiency Conference held in the Methodist Church Monday evening, in charge of the district superintendent, Dr. George W. Grinton. D. D. of Kingston. At six o'clock supper was served. The Rev. St. James Methodist Church, asked the blessing. After the supper reports were given by members of the different churches relative to their way in collecting the funds for the churches. There were many suggestions and the help given by the society was very interesting and instructive. The Rev. L. H. Robbins, secretary of the New York area, gave very interesting address in the Auditorium of the church on "Tithing and Stewardship" and left a lasting impression on his hearers. Professor T. H. Richards sang a solo entitled, "The Prodigal Son." Mr. Richards sang with great expression and his articulation was fine. The entire service was one long to be remembered as it combined sociability and spirituality and surely everyone present expressed themselves freely by saying one of the greatest hindrances in church work was the unsociability of so many. This is the first efficiency service and we hope its influence will spread. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. P. N. Chase, pastor of East Kingston Methodist Church.

BILL IN ASSEMBLY TO BAN JAZZ DANCERS.

Duke Wants Only Two Step and Waltz.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Albany, March 8.—The quicker the young folks of this state get back to the old-fashioned two step and waltz, the better off they will be, in the opinion of Assemblyman Duke, Republican, Albany.

Assemblyman Duke has introduced a bill in the legislature to prohibit what he calls "vulgar jazz music which influences dancers to use jerky half steps and immoral variations."

The bill would appropriate $20,000 for the creation of a state amusement commission to regulate just how a partner should be held, and what kind of dancing should be permitted.

Holding partners tightly, cheek to cheek dancing, and the "neck hold" all would be stopped by the bill. It also takes a slap at "dancing characterized by movements above the waist rather than from the waist down," and "dancing which consists of suggestive movements."

It provides that the following number of measures to the minutes should be observed by all dancers: Waltz, 48; two step, 54; one step, 66; fox trot, 40.

"Moonlight" dancing would be a thing of the past if the bill becomes law, because "bright lights" are specified for all dance halls.

All those who have punch cards are asked to bring them in order that they may be turned in and the attendance recorded and the cards filed.

TO PASS BONUS MINUS SALES TAX

Forney and Other Republicans Believe President's Wishes Have Been Met in Other Directions And Hope For His Approval.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 8.—In the face of the implied warning that President Harding is opposed to the completed bonus bill now pending in the house because it does not provide for a sales tax to raise the necessary money, Republican leaders today were determined to pass the measure in its present form. They do not believe that the president will veto the bill after it gets through congress.

It was pointed out today that the original bonus requirements of the president were that (1) there should be no re-enactment of repealed taxes on excess profits; (2) that the treasury should not be called upon to meet a heavy draft for cash payments; and (3) that interest received on the foreign debt to the United States should not be used.

Republican leaders of the house declare that all of these conditions have been met in the present bill for it takes less than $16,000,000 out of the treasury, levies no provision for the use of foreign debt bonds.

Chairman Forney of the house ways and means committee, is in Peoria, Ill., today but before leaving Washington, he expressed the belief that President Harding would approve the bonus bill as finally drafted by the committee.

Representatives Longworth, Freer and Tilson, leading Republicans on the ways and means committee declared today that while they did not know the president's mind, they were doubtful if he would oppose the bill despite the committee's flat rejection of the sales tax.

It is expected that the bill will be passed by the house early next week. The ways and means committee probably will lay the measure before the house on Saturday.

Lodge Warns of Grave Consequences If Senate Rejects Pacific Treaty.

WILSON ENTERS TREATY FIGHT

Lines Up With Borah Against Four-Power Pacific Pact—Both Believe It Dangerous to Best Interests of Country.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 8.—Woodrow Wilson and Senator William E. Borah have joined forces to defeat ratification of the four-power Pacific treaty.

Both believe that the treaty is an alliance of four powers and as such is dangerous to the interests of the United States, and both will leave no stone unturned to prevent its acceptance by the senate.

From his quiet home in S. street, where he has silently observed the course of events for the last year, Woodrow Wilson has written a letter to the Idaho irreconcilable outlining his reasons for believing the treaty to be an "inhuman" alliance of the strong.

Not only has Mr. Wilson communicated with Senator Borah by letter, but he has also had his views explained to the Idaho senator through Bernard M. Baruch and others who have visited the S. street home since the close of the armament conference.

The letter has not been made public and probably will not be, but its existence is well known to Senator Lodge, the Republican majority leader, and to Senator Underwood, the Democratic leader, who so far has been able to line up only a handful of Democrats in support of the pact.

As explained by opponents of the treaty, the analogy between the attitude of the Wilson and that of Senator Borah toward the treaty is as follows:

1.—Both are against "alliances."

2.—Both regard the four-power treaty distinctly as an alliance.

3.—Wilson is opposed to alliance for two reasons (a) because they have been a prolific source of war in the past, (b) because special alliances like the one the treaty provides for, necessarily destroys the possibility of a real league of nations.

4.—Wilson always has denounced alliances, and one of the great objects of the League was to destroy alliances.

5.—Borah agrees with Wilson that alliances are dangerous things and are the causes of armament and wars, for one alliance leads to another.

6.—Borah also is opposed to alliances because they are "destructive of the foreign policies as enunciated by George Washington."

7.—Hence Borah and Wilson find themselves standing on common ground with regard to the four-power treaty.

The existence of the Wilson letter created a sensation when it became known at the capital today as the senate resumed consideration of the pact.

Borah, the most irreconcilable of all the irreconcilables in the League fight, has found common ground on which to stand with the father of the League. "International policies make strange bedfellows," was a frequently heard remark.

The Wilson letter did not greatly surprise either Lodge or Underwood. It was stated that they had been aware for some time that the "Wilson influence" was working against the treaty and they welcomed bringing the fight into the open. Both were still confident that ratification will be had by a narrow margin.

The letter from S. street, the first, so far as is known, that the former president has written, was of especial significance to Underwood. It brought the realization that all of the influence of the former administration had been thrown against his titular leadership of his party in the senate.

Underwood is counting on at least eight or nine Democratic votes besides his own to provide the votes necessary to ratification. These are Broussard and Randall of Louisiana; Power of Ohio; Fletcher and Trammell of Florida; Myers of Montana; Kendrick of Wyoming; Stanley of Kentucky; Dial and probably Smith of South Carolina.

Appearances today, however, gave rise to uncertainty that these could be counted on definitely.

It was conceded on both sides that the vote on ratification would probably be extremely close, but Republican leaders said they did not care how close so long as ratification was accomplished.

The cases will be tried together and will take some time to complete. Judge J. G. Van Klen, John DeWay and Lottor Lounsbury appear for plaintiff and Mr. Mills of Mills & Mills of Albany with Judge James Jenkins appear for defendant companies.

The cases were continued this afternoon.

INSURANCE CASES GET TO TRIAL

Notice of Cancellation Had Been Sent To Kelly and Buildings Burned on Night It Was Effective.

When supreme court convened this morning at 10 o'clock the eight Kelly insurance cases were moved for trial and the morning session of court was taken up in the selection of a jury and the opening address by attorneys in the case.

The Kelly cases have been coming up at each term of court for some time and last October one of the cases was disposed of. Originally there were nine cases all against cooperative insurance companies which were handled by Agent Denman of Ellenville who issued the policies to Mr. Kelly. As is the custom in issuing insurance by an agent partly to distribute the loss in case of fire and also in order to distribute the business and profit, the insured, the insurance on the Hubert Kelly property was distributed among the nine companies for which Mr. Denman was agent.

From the opening address of Mr. Kelly, attorney for plaintiff, it appears that Mr. Kelly who resides in the town of Wawarsing about four miles from Ellenville made application for insurance on his home, barn and the contents. After the issuing of the insurance policies which were issued in Mrs. Kelly's name there was some domestic trouble in the Kelly family which resulted in a separation. In this proceeding Mrs. Kelly deeded the property to Mr. Kelly and she moved to another house a mile distant from the farm of Hubert Kelly. However after some time the Kellys became partly reconciled and Mr. Kelly spent a part of his time at the house where his wife lived and conducted a boarding house. On the night of the fire he was at the house where his wife lived.

The insurance was issued about the middle of the year 1917 and was retained in Mrs. Kelly's name even after the transfer of the property.

On July 14, 1918, while Mr. Kelly was at the house occupied by his wife the house, barn and other buildings on the Kelly farm were destroyed and the contents, Mr. Kelly sought to recover the insurance and the insurance companies have refused to pay. The various actions resulted.

It appears that a short time before the fire some person sent an anonymous letter to the agent in Ellenville stating that the Kelly property was over insured and that there would be a fire. In accordance with customs the agent sent a notice of cancellation to Mr. Kelly, the cancellation to take effect in five days. It was on the night of the fire that the fire took place.

Defendants claim that beside the mysterious fire on the night when the insurance would have expired, Mr. Kelly did not have in the house at the time of the fire the property which was inventoried and supposed to have been lost in the fire. That he took from his house prior to the fire furniture to furnish the boarding house where his wife was living and that on the night of the fire his automobile was not on the property as well as other personal property and that he was not occupying the house but that the house was unoccupied and the insurance therefore void. The defendants claim that he was spending much of his time or practically living at the house where his wife stayed and that the windows of the Kelly house were boarded up and the property was really vacated, and therefore the insurance not in effect.

The cases will be tried together and will take some time to complete. Judge J. G. Van Klen, John DeWay and Lottor Lounsbury appear for plaintiff and Mr. Mills of Mills & Mills of Albany with Judge James Jenkins appear for defendant companies.

The cases were continued this afternoon.

The rounded figure is the figure of health and beauty. If you are too thin you can add solid, firm flesh by taking Gude's Pepto-Mangan with your meals for a few weeks. It will put you in better health and Nature will restore you to your normal weight. Pepto-Mangan itself does not add weight, but it does build up health. ## COAL DEALERS SAY BUY NOW

For Needs to May 15—Only Reduction in Miners' Wages or Freight Rates Can Make Coal Price Come Down.

Following is a brief summary of the coal situation as the National Retail Coal Merchants' Association sees it:

"The United Mine Workers in utter disregard of the necessity for return to normal economic conditions, have formulated demands for increased pay and reduced working hours, and through their union officials are attempting to force the mine operators to perpetuate existing high wage scales, by a demand for increased pay and reduced working hours or a threat of strike. These demands they desire to have become effective on the expiration of the present agreement, March 31.

"Reduced cost of coal to the consumer requires a reduction in the cost of mining, of which cost over 70 per cent is represented by labor. If the present scale of wages is continued, or an advanced scale becomes effective, there can be no appreciable reduction in mining costs, thereby preventing a substantial reduction in selling prices, except as lowered freight rates will permit. A reduction of 10 per cent in existing coal freight rates would mean a saving only of from 25c to 75c per ton to eastern points and from 50c to 75c per ton on the long westward hauls.

"If there should be a suspension of mining on April 1st, the public interest will be best served if the demand for coal is moderate while negotiations for a new wage scale are pending. Therefore, consumers should now purchase sufficient coal for household and industrial purposes to satisfy their requirements at least to May 15. This policy will make for an orderly adjustment of conditions between the producers and will prevent levying exorbitant prices during the suspension period. In the final adjustment the public will be the deciding factor, and the wisdom of maintaining a reasonable supply of coal at prevailing prices, so that the lowest possible level may be reached in the future, is suggested."

DAIRY LEAGUE CONTRACT CANCELLATIONS 3,326

Showing "Very Satisfactory To Pooling Directors."

At noon on March 2nd the total number of contracts cancellations received in the offices of the Dairymen's League Co-Operative Association in Utica amounted to 3,326. Although the period allowed for the filing of these notices ended on February 28th, a few belated cancellations were still coming in but these will be offset by applications so that the final revision of the figures will doubtless make the above total little larger.

During the month of February the association received 2,577 new contracts. In other words during the month while the cancellation period was in force the association received only 749 more cancellations than new contracts. Of these new contracts 357 came from producers in the fluid milk territory. On March 3rd the total number of new contracts received by the league since February 1st had increased to 3,183.

These figures show how solidly the farmers are behind the Co-Operative Association, and the pooling plan, says The Dairymen's League News.

Time to Think.

The time required for the human mind to conceive a single thought has been estimated at a twelfth of a second, Pomer. This figure was arrived at from experiments, proving that it is impossible for a man to obtain more than ten contractions of the muscles each second. If the will cannot obtain more contractions it is because the act of will requires a certain time and the successive volitions cannot follow one another at too close intervals.

Don't Worry Over Loss of Leg.

One often sees among the soldiers spiderlike creatures called harvestmen, which move swiftly on spiderlike legs, over 30 times the length of the body. They hunt mostly by night, killing and sucking small insects and drinking drops of dew. If one is caught by the leg it surrenders it instantaneously and painlessly away. The same sort of predilection is exhibited by some spiders and some insects, such as grasshoppers, crickets and their relatives.

Glass Repels Fire.

There is a product called "wire glass," which, it appears, promises a most effective barrier against fire. It consists simply of a network of wire embedded in a glass plate. Even when heated by flames and raised to a red heat it does not fall to pieces, and it has been shown in many cases that, employed in windows and skylights, wire-glass not only repels the heat of fire, but also the shattering effects of cold water poured over it while it is yet glowing hot.

JUMP IN DEATHS BY ALCOHOLISM

In Other Respects Rate Is Lowest in History.

DROPS 13.7 PER CENT IN 1921

Death Rate Cut Chiefly Because Fewer Victims Were Claimed by Tuberculosis, Pneumonia, Influenza, Bright's Disease and Industrial Accidents—Indicates More Effective Public Health Work—Automobile Causes Greater Ravages Than Ever in 1921.

Deaths from alcoholism increased 10 per cent in 1921 against 1920, in the experience of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company which announces that in other respects 1921 had the lowest death rate ever recorded in the United States and Canada.

The rate was 8.34 per thousand lives a rate indicated by statistics based on the experience of the 14,000,000 industrial policy holders. This is lower by 13.7 per cent than the 1920 death rate and lower by 31.9 per cent than the death rate of 1911.

Shows Fewer Victims.

The death rate has been cut chiefly because fewer victims were being claimed by tuberculosis, pneumonia, influenza, Bright's disease and industrial accidents.

In the period of 11 years the company says, mortality from tuberculosis has been cut almost in half. This in itself is an unparalleled accomplishment in the history of public health. But more amazing still is the fact that the decline is continuing at an increasing rate from year to year. Despite the fact that it was marked by a business depression, unemployment and other consequences 1921 showed a greater decline in the tuberculosis death rate than any year on record. We have no better evidence of the effectiveness of the public health movement for the control of tuberculosis.

The lower death rates for organic heart disease and for Bright's disease are additional evidences that the public health work of the last twenty years has been effective in reducing the incidence of the infectious diseases and local infections.

One cause of death which resulted in greater ravages than ever in 1921 is said to have been the automobile.

Due to Automobile.

For ten successive years the bulletin continues, "the death rate from this cause has registered an increase. The 1921 death rate is more than five times that recorded for 1911. It is four times as high as the death rate recorded for 1915 and 61 per cent higher than the figure for the year 1916. The control of the rising death rate from this cause is one of the unsolved problems of police and accident prevention work in American cities. There is small consolation in the fact that the number of automobiles has also increased and that in consequence there are fewer deaths in automobile accidents per automobile in operation than there were five or ten years ago. The outstanding fact is that whether being killed by the driver or fifth or tenth automobile, the number of deaths caused by motor vehicles and the automobile death rate continue to grow year after year.

The most conspicuous bad spot in the record of the year is the increased death rate for diphtheria. The mortality from this disease was higher than in any year since 1917. This is all the more deplorable because the means for the suppression of case incidence and case fatality should be known to every health officer and every physician in the United States and Canada.

"The scarlet fever rate was higher than for any year since 1914."

HORSE SOUGHT OLD MASTER

Travelled Seven Miles to Find Him After Two Years' Absence.

Nigger, a thirty-year-old horse escaped from his stable one Thursday night and travelled seven miles to find his master. Late Helm, owner of the horse is a retired farmer and has a home in Moore's Hill, Ind., for several years.

Helm says the horse is an old family and was left in the charge of tenants on the Helm farm, but for the last two years has not been off the farm.

Helm was surprised on arriving one Friday to find the animal standing at the back door neighing in the full moon. Nigger will have a comfortable time near his master.

GOLDFISH FIREBUGS

Woman Accuses These in Bowl of Setting Blaze in Her Place.

Since the time of Jonah all kinds of stories have been told, but in investigating that a bowl of goldfish set fire to her house the other afternoon, Mrs. W. R. Shortman of Porterville, Cal., takes laurels.

Mrs. Shortman had been out and returned to find her house filled with a mass of dense smoke.

Search revealed books and papers in a table near the bowl of goldfish were blazing in flames. The sun shining into the bowl of goldfish had converted it into a burning glass and set fire to the papers.

MEXICO BEING FLOODED WITH STOLEN AUTOMOBILES

Legitimate Trade Is Seriously Affected by Rush of Cars Over the Border.

American Consul John W. Dye at Juarez, Mexico, has found what becomes of many of the automobiles stolen every month. They go across the International bridge into Mexico in such numbers that the legitimate automobile trade of Mexico has become seriously affected.

According to Mr. Dye thousands of stolen automobiles are steadily pouring across the boundary. For the most part they come from California and states bordering on the Rio Grande, but many are known to have come from as far away as Chicago. The cars are sold in Mexico for about half their value. Many are stripped of pieces of any value and abandoned, while others are taken into secret hiding places and new bodies placed on old chassis or otherwise changed so as to be unrecognizable. The consul cites one case of where a Mexican offered a boy $25 for a "good car." The boy got the car but was caught before he could deliver it. Officials are now taking the number of every car crossing the bridge.

DESCENDANT OF HAMILTON TUTOR IN COLLEGE AT 12

Betty Jane Hamilton (known to her chums as "Betty") is only twelve, but she working her way through Westminster college Wilmington, Pa., by tutoring students almost twice her own age. Betty is a descendant of the great financial politician, Alexander Hamilton, and is the fourth in a family of child prodigies—one of her sisters being a noted painter while still a child, and the other as a girl violinist, while her brother entered college at the age of fourteen and astonished educators of the country by getting the highest grade of any American college student in a "general information" test. All four of the children have musical talent, each plays at least two instruments and they have their family orchestra. None has ever had any tutors or "cramping." Betty Jane entered public school at the age of six and high school just four years later. She went through high school in half the usual time, always leading her classes. At twenty she expects to be a practicing physician.

Wounded Deer Fights

Was Only Killed With Knife After Shots Had Hit It.

That a wounded deer will fight has been demonstrated to Amer. Stager of Tannersville, Pa., when a good sized buck caught sight of him and declared war while the hunter was out alone. Stager shot the animal in a shoulder, but it failed to stop or even turn from its course.

The second bullet struck the deer in the head and the wounded animal, coming at full speed, was stopped so suddenly that it turned a complete somersault and landed on one side but scrambled to its feet and renewed its efforts to fight the man. Stager fired a third shot that struck the deer in a hip, but failed to halt it, and a fourth shot in the head merely put it out of the combat temporarily.

Disregarding its many wounds the plucky buck made a number of attempts to rise and renew the attack but Stager used his hunting knife to bring its struggles to an end.

The Point.

"My dear," asked Blackstone, looking for a compliment, "what would you do if I should leave you?" "How much?" asked Mrs. Blackstone, absent-mindedly. — American Legion Weekly.

BRINGING BOARDERS TO TIME

Woman Employs Gossip as a Medium for Getting Delinquents to Settle Their Bills.

Many and various are the schemes employed by boarding house keepers to spur collections from delinquent boarders. The latest is to take gossiping, the boarders' own most popular indoor sport, and use it against them.

"Bestest thing in the world," declared an exponent of the new system. "All you have to do is spread the news. You just weave it into the conversation off-hand like that and it's a shame poor Mr. Brown is having such hard luck and his wife so brave, too. 'He owes me for three weeks now,' you say. 'Not that I'd press him for it. But he must be kind of hard put to be hanging up a poor widow like me.'"

"That's enough. Whoever I tell tells it to some one else. She tells some one else. Soon it's all over the house and in time it gets back to Brown. That usually brings him around. Few persons can stand it to be talked about." — New York Sun.

Improbable Story Beginning.

Vladimir noticed the excellent dictation of the street car conductors in announcing the stations.

When Shalinsk pulled up at the garage he found the price had not been arbitrarily raised because he was a tourist.

The maid opened the door and Cora entered with the umbrella she had borrowed the week before.

Before Ann Christie left for Hollywood to take up film work she, openly admitted she was not as good as some of the stars and therefore never expected to reach stardom.

Our hero had sent a copy of the latest book of his favorite author to the writer himself asking that it be autographed. The sample request was complied with and the book promptly returned. — New York Sun.

Webster's Last Opportunity.

Daniel Webster, expounder of the Constitution, great senator and eloquent orator, had set his heart on becoming chief magistrate of the American republic. All efforts to secure the presidential nomination proved abortive. He could have had the nomination for the vice presidency in 1840 by simply indicating his willingness to accept. Unwisely he brushed the suggestion aside. He considered himself above playing second fiddle with William Henry Harrison. Had he been equipped with more self-abnegation than laughtiness he would have accepted, and had he done so he would have become President April 8, 1841, an even month after the inauguration of Tippecanoe and Tyler too, as a result of Harrison's death.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

by MARY GRAHAM BONNER

KING PENGUIN'S MATE

"Some of the King Penguins," said Daddy, "had mated when they were a little younger. One Mrs. King Penguin, who had laid an egg quite early, before the first of the year and during the latter month of the old year had her's stolen, but she was lucky enough to have laid her first egg so soon that she could lay another one and so not miss the usual yearly time about when the King Penguins hatch out their young."

"But the King Penguin I'm telling you about this time hasn't as yet picked out his mate. He knew who he wanted though."

"He went to see Miss King Penguin and he looked at her beautiful wings and gazed upon her neck and admired her plumage."

"Will you take a walk with me?" he asked. "I would like to take you to walk over upon yonder high bank which looks upon the sea."

"Mr. King Penguin was very beautiful. His plumage was fine. He was a good swimmer and he walked in a nice straight fashion as a bird of his kind should do."

"It would be nice to look out upon the sea," he went on. "I'd like to show you where we would get fine things to eat, how we could swim together under the blue, blue water. I would like you to look with me at the great and beautiful ocean out beyond."

"And Miss King Penguin slowly turned her head and looked at him and gave him the most loving of looks. 'Gladly will I walk with you,' she said."

"And," he answered, "I would like you to walk more than once with me! I'd like you for my mate."

"Gladly will I be your mate," she said. And they walked away from where all their friends and neighbors were, yes, they walked away and then they talked. They didn't talk of much of anything and while it wouldn't have been of any importance to us it was of great importance to them."

"They whispered sweet speeches in each other's ears. They told each other how they loved and admired the other. They smiled and they waved their heads and they said over and over again:

"Oh, how happy, happy we are!"

"They crossed their necks then, which is something they do when they know that each cares for the other and that they are going to be loving mates. And as they walked up on top of the high bank which looked far over the sea, off by themselves, away from the eyes of curious relatives and friends, they talked more and more to each other of how they loved the other and of what a beautiful world it was."

"They swayed and waved themselves from side to side and then Mr. King Penguin put his head on Miss Penguin's neck and pressed it down until it almost reached the ground."

"And he said:

"I love you so much and I try to press and press my words into you until your neck is pressed to the ground. It is my strange way of telling you how I love you."

"And Miss King Penguin said:

"It is the strange way you may have, but it is the way that I love."

"So these two walked together and planned together and dreamed sweet dreams of the baby Penguin which would hatch out from the egg which pretty Miss Penguin laid after she had become the mate of Mr. King Penguin. For she needed him to help her guard it and look after it and she needed him to help her bring it up to be fine and strong and penguinish, or penguin."

"And she wanted—'Gladly Will I'—to show the young penguin that it was not the wisest and best thing in the world for them to go with any penguin cousins of a smaller species or kind than themselves."

"And if the young penguin was a young master penguin as she hoped, she would see him grow like his father, for when he was eight months old, or so, he would be wearing his new feathers with the yellow and orange touches around the upper part of his chest and about his eyes. And his feathers would become glossy and green and his bill would be very black."

"Ah, Mr. King Penguin's mate was very, very happy."

His Favorite Haircut.

"Well, my little man, how would you like your hair cut?"

"Just like my dad's, with a round hole on top."

TASTY GOOD THINGS

A cottage pudding is well liked but usually served with a sweet sauce or better with a vinegar or lemon sauce; try it by baking it in gem pans and cover each with sliced bananas and heap over it a spoonful of whipped cream. Strawberries, peaches or any canned fruit may be used if the fresh is not available to the market.

Glassed Apricot Mollis.—Take two dozen dried apricots, stretch and pull until there are no rolled edges; if necessary trim the edges with the scissors. Soak in water five minutes, then dry thoroughly and roll into small round rolls. Add one-half cupful of water to one cupful of sugar; when well dissolved, add one-fourth of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar and boil until the syrup is a light straw color. Remove the pan at once and set into cold water to stop the cooking. Place the pan over hot water while dipping the apricots on a hot pin or long fork; remove to a waxed paper to chill. Wrap each in waxed paper.

Peach and Apricot Lollipops.—Remove two tablespoonfuls of water from a cupful of boiling water and add to one and three-fourths cupful of sugar; add one-half teaspoonful of cream of tartar and cook slowly with stirring until the syrup becomes a golden brown. Set the pan into cold water at once to stop the boiling and then place in a pan of hot water to stand while dipping. Prepare the dried fruits by pulling them flat, then place in a colander and dip quickly into boiling water, then into cold. Dry with a towel and place a wooden meat skewer in each. Dip in the syrup, drain and place on well buttered plates until cold. Wrap each in waxed paper.

Prune and Apple Tart.—Fill a deep baking dish with sliced apples, sugar, well washed and soaked prunes, heap the fruit well up in the center. Cover with pastry, brush with beaten egg or milk, score with a knife and bake in a moderately hot oven for three-quarters of an hour. Sprinkle with sugar, surround with a paper frill or place on a dolly and serve cold with cream.

CHANGE 'CLOTHES' IN WINTER

Animals and Birds Make Seasonal Shifts. Very Much as Does the Human Family.

Some animals and birds change their dress in winter just as we do. The ptarmigan, a bird belonging to the same family as the grouse, and who lives high up in the Scottish mountains, is one of the birds who wear a completely different dress in winter. In the summer he is a pretty yellowish-brown all over, with white wings, but in winter he is almost all white. This is because there is so much snow on the high hills that if he remained brown he would be easily seen against the snow.

A neighbor of the ptarmigan in the Scottish mountains is the blue mountain hare. In summer he is grayish brown, but in winter comes he sheds his hair and grows a new coat of pale gray and white fur. Ptarmigan even sleep on the snow when there is ground free of snow quite near, and one finds the little hollows made in the snow by their warm bodies. Some people say that white fur and white feathers are warmer than darker colors. So perhaps that is partly why some animals and birds in cold places have white winter clothes. Far north, in the arctic regions, where there is always snow and ice all the year round, most of the animals are white. For instance, the polar bear and the arctic fox.—Christian Science Monitor.

"There's a job open at the Eagle laundry," said the man behind the desk. "Want it?" The applicant stammered uneasily from one foot to the other. "Tell you how it is, boss," he said finally. "I sure does want a job mighty bad, but de fish in, I can't swim without a eagle."

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Multisifed coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisifed in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rises out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisifed coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Multisifed—Advertisement.

PATRICOLO PARTY'S MUSIC ENJOYED

Should the Federation of Women's Clubs care to bring Angelo Patricolo and assisting talent to Kingston again, they would find it comparatively easy to sell tickets for Tuesday evening's concert at the High School Auditorium was enjoyed alike by musicians and music lovers. In spite of the exceeding inclement weather and the fact that so many are or have been ill with colds and grip, there was a gratifyingly large audience to greet the musicians.

The program opened with a group of harp numbers played by Clara Auwell who proved herself to be considerable of a harpist. She played a Mazurka by her former teacher, Schuecker; "La Cascade," by Oberthun and a "Chorale and Variations" of her own composition which seemed to appeal to the audience especially. However, all of the numbers called forth hearty applause and Miss Auwell gave an encore number that seemed an especially appropriate harp composition.

Carro Greene, soprano, proved to be a devoted favorite, possessed of a pleasing soprano voice, an inconspicuous but adequate technique that one did not have to bother about, but which left one free to enjoy her singing. A gracious personality with dignity and poise added to her charm. After singing the "Aria 'Vissi d'Arte'" from the opera "Tosca" by Puccini, a "Cradle Song" by Newcomb and the "Song of the South" by Brill, all well interpreted and sung with a satisfying clearness of enunciation. Miss Carro Greene sang a pretty encore number.

Angelo Patricolo was born in Italy, the land of melody and "concord of sweet sounds," and his birthright musically is still with him. He is indeed an artist, possessed of the elaborate technique which the concert goer of today demands, but at no time did he sacrifice music to the musical fireworks. His first group of selections included Rubenstein's "Siciliano Etude," two Chopin numbers, the Nocturne in E flat and the Valse in C minor; and the splendid "Tannhauser March," arranged by Liszt, which was splendidly played.

Patricolo takes note of the land of his adoption as well as his birth, in connection with his music, and played as an encore number a stirring arrangement of "Dixie," with variations.

While "Clouds and Sunshine," by Thomas; "Ar-Hyd-Y-Nos," an old Welsh Air; and "Patrol" by Hasselmanns were all harp numbers that Miss Auwell played to the delight of her audience, probably the most striking number was the old Welsh Air. This young harpist was cordially applauded after each number and gave a final encore.

Miss Greene's last group of songs included three favorites: "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Lieurance; "Songs My Mother Taught Me," by Drorak and "The Star" by Rogers. The two last were among the best numbers sung by Miss Greene who responded to the continued applause by singing charmingly, "Mighty Lak a Rose," by Nevin.

Patricolo brought the program to a close with three brilliant, and always delightful compositions, played with fine interpretation and musicianship; Rubinstein's "Romance," "The Erlking," Schubert-Liszt; and "Concert Paraphrase," from the opera "Trovatore," Verdi-Liszt and was given rousing applause. His encore number was "America" with variations.

A word of sincere compliment is also due Miss Anna Lewis, the capable and gifted accompanist.

SILK AND AUTO STEALERS FOILED

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, March 8.—Two exciting burglar chases in which many shots were fired, enlivened Broadway early today following attempts of thieves to loot the silk factory of the M. Fishbein Company in West Twentieth street and to steal a $5,000 automobile from a garage in West Forty Eighth street.

Two men who said they were Henry Phillips and George Mude, both of New York, were captured in the chase after the silk burglars, and charged with burglary.

Frank Schultz, owner of the garage from which an attempt was made to steal a car, helped police to capture a man who gave his name as James Brickley, 21, after a chase up Broadway. Another man with Brickley escaped. Brickley was charged with burglary.

WHAT IS OFFERED AT THE THEATRES

Marjah, the "mystic mental genius of far off India," has again demonstrated his powers by mesmerizing a woman and keeping her under his control in the Van Wagonen window from 3:30 yesterday afternoon until 7:30 last evening when she was removed to the Keeney theatre stage and awakened before the audience. Also the events in the lives of hundreds are foretold at every performance in a most bewildering and inexplicable way. Tonight after the first performance Marjah will answer as many questions as possible in the foyer of the theatre as it is possible in his allotted time. Ethel Clayton in "Her Own Money" is the photoplay attraction at Keeney's tonight. It is a story of all wives, all husbands and money. Starting tomorrow for three days Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter in a laugh triumph "Don't Tell Everything."

Keith Vandeville at the Opera House closes the first half of the week with the Ray and Davis pair of funsters, Jennette Childs the singing rosebud and Leslie Murray with Juanna and Dolores in a comedy singing and talking laugh fest. Corinne Griffith in "Received Payment" is the photoplay attraction for tonight. The entire change of performance starting tomorrow includes "Basket Ball on Bicycles." Others on the program are Evelyn and Maybell Ross, two dainty singing maids, Primrose Seamon and Arthur Conrad in Musikomikities. The photoplay is Pearl White in "Any Wife."

William S. Hart in "White Oak" is showing at the Auditorium tonight, also Eddie Polo in "The Secret Four" the action serial.

William Duncan in "Steelheart" a drama of the western frontier in the days when the west was new is the attraction at the Colonial Thursday and Friday. William Russell in "Desert Blossoms" is showing for the last times tonight.

BLOOMINGTON.

Bloomington, March 8.—The Registrar Society will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon March 16 at the home of Mrs. Schulhof of Creek Locks. The reason of postponing the meeting this week was owing to the Home Bureau meeting being on the same date. New members and visitors are always welcome.

Church services at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Polhemus will preach. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. All the congregation are invited to attend. Mrs. Joseph Yonker has been spending some time with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Yonker, of Maple Hill, as they are ill and she is caring for them.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 o'clock. Topic, "Habits, Good and Bad." Prov. 4:23-27; Heb. 10:23-25. Leader, Miss Florence Relyea.

The Ladies Aid Society meeting, which was held on Wednesday afternoon of the past week, was quite largely attended at the home of Mrs. Schulhof, and was certainly enjoyed by all the ladies and they also welcomed another new member in their society.

The Home Bureau meeting will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the basement of the church. Subject, "Bathing and Care of the Patient." Speaker, Miss B. Kingsburg, state nurse. The ladies are all invited and urged to attend the meeting.

The ladies also held a Home Bureau meeting of dress form making on Friday in the basement of the church. Five forms were made.

Mrs. J. M. Ingersoll of Poughkeepsie came on Sunday to visit her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chatterton for a few days.

Mrs. J. H. Kasten went one day of the past week to New York city, where her husband has a position as she expects to spend a few weeks there.

Mrs. Sarah Livingston, who was taken suddenly ill one day of the past week, was returned on Thursday to Kingston to her niece's, Miss Kate Freer, who is taking care of her and on Sunday was improving very slowly.

Fred Randegger has bought the lot on Main street of C. I. LeFever and is now having a bungalow built. Robert Taylor of Creek Locks with his men are doing the work.

Our Growing Population.

The following births have been reported to the board of health:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sheder of Eddyville, a son born at the Kingston City Hospital whose name is Donald Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ward Relyea of 161 Smith avenue, a son, William LeGrand, born at the Kingston City Hospital.

Round Chimneys Best.

A round chimney, while not so easy to build as a square one, has decided advantages over the latter, says the Scientific American. It greatly lessens the friction between the walls of the chimney and the rising gases, and has the smallest wall surface in proportion to the cross area. The efficiency of a round chimney 24 inches in diameter is almost as great as that of a square chimney 24 inches across.

Charlotte Peaches Jackson

Here's the latest thing out for children—a white mull dress, trimmed in baby Irish lace and insertion, together with heavy ribbon sash and pretty mull hat, trimmed with lace. The costume is being worn here by Charlotte ("Peaches") Jackson, popular child actress.

Abram Lurie Arrested.

Abram Lurie, a young man residing on Chambers street, was arrested this morning by Policeman Camp on a warrant sworn out before Justice Brady in Albany by Joseph E. Mulville of 26-day street, that city, charging Lurie with petit larceny. It is understood the trouble arose over a check. Lurie gave bail for his appearance in Albany police court where he will have a chance to tell his side of the story.

Built to Last!

Your satisfaction with a Sedan depends largely upon construction you'll never see. Since you can't see it, you want to be all the more certain what's there.

And the chances are you'll buy from the manufacturer in whom you have the greatest confidence.

Studebaker's reputation for fine coach work was established in your grandfather's time.

This LIGHT-SIX Sedan body is built complete in Studebaker plants and is as good as the chassis. It will last, without rattles or squeaks, as long as the chassis—and that's longer than the average life of many other cars. There's nothing flimsy about this body. It has a sturdy frame-work of selected ash, the best lumber for the purpose that can be bought.

Eight stout ash pillars, running from floor to roof, insure permanent strength and rigidity which means freedom from body rattles. The joints of the steel panels of the outer surface are perfectly welded. Doors are hung with great precision—open freely and close with a sound of finality. Windows open without binding, yet are so firmly set that they are rattle-proof.

And unless you choose a Sedan with the quietness and flexibility of the LIGHT-SIX motor you will be disappointed.

CHIEF CAUPOLICAN HERE MARCH 17

Chief Caupolican hails from the Metropolitan Opera Company, but that has neither given him his personal charm nor his famous baritone voice. He is the son of a mighty South American Indian, himself the ruler of his tribe. His mother is a daughter of France. The chief, the songs, the customs, the costumes of the wild South Americans will be presented at the high school auditorium on Friday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock.

President Harding loves beautiful music and in order to appease his appetite for the same the president had Chief Caupolican sing in the White House, Sunday, January 29. During the chief's recital President Harding sat enraptured, musingly, and when the last number had been given the president awoke as from a dream and sighed when the spell was broken.

The chief will be assisted by Signorina Catarina Guerriere, a lyric soprano. The singers will be accompanied at the piano by Madame Emelise Gunthide Jette.

Chief Caupolican sang in a recital before the Poughkeepsie Rotary Club with most successful results. A recital was also given at Sanger's.

Last year the chief gave an impromptu recital to the high school students following his attendance at the Rotary Club. The select Mozart Society has also had Chief Caupolican sing at reception.

Tuesday afternoon a meeting was held in Hall B at the high school and about 100 students were present, and in these students was vested the ticket-selling power while each individual was armed with a number of tickets. As Chief Caupolican is a member of the Rotary Club the sale of tickets will also be projected through this organization.

I want to write some poetry
About Sylvester Hupp.
A half a dozen lines or so
Will fit the ornery pup—
I do not know this bird at all
But it fills the column up.

I want to write another verse
About Estella Snow;
And it will be enough to tell
I never heard of her before.
But it fills the column up.

I want to write a little bit
About Pricilla Pines;
I don't know who this lady is
(Or where she lives or dines)
But this I know (I'll grant it's so)
She takes up just six lines.

A girl can go upstairs and "dress"
For two hours and then come down wearing the clothes she had on when she went up to "dress."

This Looks Serious.

they expect to continue the grocery

As it looks now, Samsonville will

"Yes, Madam, Coats will be worn this Spring"

COATS OF TWEEDS, POLO.

These are real utility coats. Of soft, basket weave polo and tweed mixtures. Special attention has been given sleeves that set in snugly, or are comfortably loose. Mannish touches as to belts, smartly tailored collars, cuffs and flat pockets, help suggest slim lines. Semi-lined or lined throughout in fine silk, they are in the newest shades of brown, tan and tweed mixtures.

Priced $13.50 to $27.50

ALL WOOL SWEATERS

Dressy and comfortable for out-of-doors, or house wear, these are the genuine all-wool, and of the newest weaves. In the ever-popular Tuxedo, and front-buttoning models, they are tastefully trimmed, with plain or striped, two color, wooly angora collars and cuffs. The colors are rich henna, grays, browns, greens, navy, black.

Priced $12.50 to $19.50

NEW CORSETS FOR NEW COSTUMES

In the newest of models demanded by fashion for giving that youthful trim effect as to bodice, and hip line. Of sturdy, attractive material, not too confining any of them, they give welcome support for dress or sport wear; and yet retain that elasticity and freedom, so characteristic of the new silhouettes. Come in and let our corsetier fit you.

Priced $1.50 to $18.00

GINGHAMS FOR THE YOUNGER SET

Like the first days of spring these newest spring frocks are varied as to styles and so colorful! Simple long-waisted, gathered, or pleated styles, all of them straight of line, they take advantage of the ways of Peter Pan collars, applique or embroidery, to become daintily youthful. Checks large or small, on white or contrasting grounds, as well as the plain chambrays, have such dainty gingham pipings, pretty vestees. The littlest girl may be just as smart as her elder sister, for sizes are from 6 to 16 years.

Priced $1.75 to $5.75

WINDOW SHADES

"Your house is your castle" * * * Don't neglect the freshening effect of new window shades! Let our shade man satisfy your needs in Lonsdale, Holland and Linolene.

Priced 85c to $1.25.

NEWEST CURTAIN MATERIAL

Of sheer or coarse weaves, marquisette and scrim, have borders of colorful floral designs, in cream or white, with embroidered designs, in self or contrasting colors. Or just plain, these 36 inch curtain materials, are ready for your home.

Priced yard 25c to 65c.

CRETONNES.

Fine quality cretonnes, in bright floral, striped and tapestry effects. 36 inches wide, fill a variety of needs. In rich colorings, and brilliant contrasts, they are favored not only as draperies, brightening the largest room, but are most novel for frocks, or collar and cuff sets.

Priced Yd. 29c to 69c.

FOULARD SATEENS

Satiny to the touch, of pleasingly simple designs, on dark and light grounds, with contrasting colors, are these fine quality, 36 inch wide sateens. Used as novelty linings, they will be most popular, and for frocks, they are unequalled for their durability and draping qualities.

Priced Yard 50c

SILK AND COTTON VOILES

Unusually pretty as to design and color combinations, are these sheer, silk-striped voiles, 36 inches wide. Odd checks and dot, or scroll and floral motifs, on contrasting grounds, might be draped in many of the new dress styles. Blues, browns, green, helio.

Priced Yard $1.00

NECKWEAR THAT IS MOST NOVEL

Still they come! These dainty sets of collars and cuffs, and novel vestees. Lace trimmed, tucked, brightly embroidered, or demurely simple, they have just arrived in nets, gingham, ratine, linens. In the smartest of Tuxedo, Peter Pan, or Puritan styles, and newest combinations of materials, and colors, they will add just the right spring-like touch to suit or frock.

Vestees at $1.25 to $3.00
Collar and Cuff Sets, 59c to $1.50

NOVELTY GLOVE IMPORTATIONS

These gauntlet models, in the softest, French kid, are the last word in dress gloves. Novel cuff effects, wrist straps, contrasting bandings and embroidery, in spring colors, and combinations of mode and champagne, they are specially worth your attention.

Price $3.00 to $3.75.

With the Giants at San Antonio

Lots of speed—later on. The pitching staff of the New York Giants, world's baseball champions, are working out the kinks in their spring training camp at San Antonio, Texas. Here they are seen in their first "warm-up" of the pre-season era. Sorches, already has been worked out of the pitching arms of this whirlwind crew, but famous arms of famous twirlers are being nursed along with care. The lower panel shows three rookies who hope to land here with McGraw's clan. Roy Gillenwater and Frank Samide are after backstop berths, while Walter Kopf seeks an infield position.

Final plans have been completed for the erection at Alexandria, Va., across the Potomac from the national capital, of a magnificent Masonic memorial building. The structure, to be constructed at a cost of nearly $2,000,000, will honor the memory of George Washington. The movement for the erection of the memorial was inaugurated twelve years ago by the Washington-Alexandria Lodge, No. 22, F. & A. M., of which George Washington at one time was master. This photo shows the architect's plans for the memorial.

All Shoes Are Cheaper

There has been a marked decline in the prices of all grades of footwear for all ages.

We have studied the situation carefully, made a great many investigations, and as a result of both we have gone, thoroughly, through our entire stock, and re-marked every pair of footwear to the lowest possible level. This has meant a reduction of several thousand dollars in the retail prices of our stock.

We built our business on honest merchandise, modest profits, correct fitting of the feet, and courteous service and will continue to handle only such footwear which we know will give you the utmost of satisfaction both as to comfort, style and service, and give you these three important qualifications at a small margin of profit to ourselves.

"He Will Not Move a Muscle."

A Coney Island Barker's speech is recalled by Marc Connelly thus: "Sir Ed-on-ard, the man with a face of stone. He will not laugh; he will not smile. Mock him, scold him, jeer, jest, or jape. He will not move a muscle of the face. Sir Ed-on-ard believes that laughter, like grief, pain, sorrow or any other emotion, can be controlled by the muscles of the face. Should any lady make Sir Ed-on-ard laugh he has a standing offer to either forfeit ten thousand dollars or marry her."—New York Tribune.
